The Alma Fund

The Alma College ALMA FUND has always been the lifeblood of the college, supporting the critical annual needs and costs of running a busy campus while ensuring the college's strong progress and development.

Mission Statement:

Alma College's mission is to prepare graduates who think critically, serve generously, lead purposefully, and live responsibly as stewards of the world they bequeath to future generations.

Detail Description:

Alma College is a selective, baccalaureate liberal arts college committed to academic excellence and development of responsible leaders. Alma's undergraduates thrive on challenging academic programs in a supportive, small-college environment emphasizing active, collaborative learning and close student-faculty interaction.

Our History:

Alma College was founded in 1886 by a group of devoted Presbyterian clergy and laymen who had a dream: to establish a liberal arts college based upon the loftiest of ideals — unifying the human mind and spirit through knowledge. Today, Alma College maintains a close relationship with the Presbyterian Church (USA) but also offers an environment that welcomes students of all religious backgrounds.

Partner Organizations:

Alma College is a private Phi Beta Kappa institution. The College is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
